

THE BRITISH SCHOOLS

Founded 1908

Dear Parents,

I would like to start by congratulating the 3YL French students for the maturity and seriousness by which they conducted themselves during the Mock Exams.

We have all been waiting for confirmation from Cambridge about whether the real exams will take place in November. Cambridge have recently instructed all IGCSE centres that the exams will take place. Therefore, as a School, we will now start preparing for these exams.

The exams will take place on the following dates:

- Wednesday, 21st October
- Tuesday, 27th October
- Wednesday, 11th November

More detailed information about the organisation of the exams will be shared with you nearer the start date.

I wish all students the best of luck as they continue to prepare for these important exams.

Warm regards,

Andrew Bunt
Head of Senior
